
Amy Daniell, CIH - amy@circlesafety.com

Abstract

Certified Industrial Hygienist (CIH) with 26 years of diverse public and private sector experience, focusing on heavy manufacturing, mining, and university. Strong background in IH sampling, analysis, reporting, site safety and health audits, and program development. Specific expertise includes aggregates, building materials, laboratory safety, silica, naturally occurring asbestos, welding, respiratory protection, ventilation, noise and hearing conservation, and ergonomics.

Experience

Occupational Safety and Health Consultant:

May 2013 – Present

Circle Safety & Health Consultants, LLC

Occupational Health Manager:

2007 – 2012

Luck Stone Corporation

Senior Industrial Hygienist:

2005-2007

Hanson Building Materials

Industrial Hygienist:

1999-2004

Titan America, LLC (formerly Tarmac America)

Coordinator Special Programs, Occupational Safety and Health:

1996-1999

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Industrial Hygienist:

1987-1996

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Education

Master of Science

Industrial Engineering

1987 Texas Tech University

Bachelor of Science

Mathematics, Cum Laude

1985 Texas Tech University

Professional Certifications

Certified Industrial Hygienist, American Board of Industrial Hygiene
Authorized OSHA Outreach Instructor for General Industry
VA Division of Mineral Mining Authorized Trainer

Memberships

American Industrial Hygiene Association

